Greenville, S.C. (November 6, 2007) – Bannister & Wyatt announces the addition of Andy Moorman as an Associate. Moorman's practice is primarily focused on family law, civil litigation and criminal defense.

Moorman graduated cum laude from Furman University in 1998 and then attended the University of South Carolina School of Law and graduated in 2001. While in law school, Andy served as a member of the South Carolina Law Review and was awarded the Cali Award for Legal and Equitable Remedies.

After graduating from law school, Moorman worked as a law clerk for the Honorable John C. Few, South Carolina Circuit Judge, for the 2001-2002 term. At the conclusion of his year with Judge Few, Andy transitioned to work in the 13th Circuit Solicitor's Office. As an Assistant Solicitor for five years, he prosecuted over 2,000 cases, and tried 23 felony cases, ranging in severity from larceny to murder. He also participated in the trial preparation of multiple death penalty cases, and represented the State of South Carolina before the South Carolina Supreme Court.

Andy is an active member of Prince of Peace Catholic Church and the Greenville Rotary Club. He has also served as Head Coach of the Furman Mock Trial Team.
